These informants, who said that the ultimate objective of the Communists was to capture Athens itself, prediced that recognition of the Vafiades regime was at most a question of months.

Only yesterday Britain and the United States advised Yugoslavia and Bulgaria of the "serious implications" of such a step, which they said would be contrary to the principles of the United Nations charter.

Britain Not Withdrawing Reinforcing this warning was a disclosure that Britain has deferred indefinitely a scheduled early evacuation of her 5,000 troops in Greece.

Moreover, according to official spokesmen, she has reached a "broad agreement" with the United States not only on joint diplomatic action to be taken in the event of recognition, but also on military steps to support the Athens regime in its, fluctuating fight against the guerrillas.

Mr. Truman outlined the program

Mr. Truman outlined the program yesterday in a 43-minute speech to a politically minded and election-conscious congress which reacted generally along partisan lines. Republicans claimed Mr. Truman was playing politics, Democrats credited him with statesmanship.

But leaders of both the Republican majority and the Democratic minority left little doubt that they look for the President's tax and anti-inflation plans to be rejected.

"I don't know whether we will call him down here." Ferguson said, "but we will ask him for information as to his trading and whether it might go back to the time he was secretary of the treasury."

Ferguson also said Secretary Anderson will be recalled to testify and that Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, President Truman's personal physician, has been asked to appear at an open hearing tomorrow.

The committee has not yet determined when it will recall Edwin W. Pauley, special assistant to Secretary of the Army Royall, Ferguson said, adding that "his account is quite complicated."

Texas Predicted

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 8—(P)—The Texas Employment Commission to-day predicted a January reduction in non-agricultural employment under seasonal influences.

A total of 14,460 new workers were added to non-agricultural payrolls in Texas' 18 major labor market areas between mid-October and mid-November. TEC reported. The added workers, including 7,930 men and 6,530 women, boosted the employment total to 1,283,350.

and mid-November. TEC reported. The added workers, including 7,930 men and 6,530 women, boost- of the employment total to 1,285, 360.

Greatest employment gains during the 30-day period were reported in the Harlingen-Brownsville area, up 5.76 per cent, at Fort Worth, up 2.33 per cent, and at Son Antonio, up 2.16 per cent. Losses ranged from a high of 2.39 per cent at Lubbock to 0.11 per cent at Corpus Christi. Other areas reporting employment drops were Abliene, Beaumont-Port Arthur and Longview-Kilgore-Giadewater.

The number of job-seekers in the 18 major labor market areas dropped from 58.370 at the end of October to 55.855 at the end of November, TEC said. It was the lowest number of the postwar period.

Give God Time
In his translation of the Old Testament, Dr. Moffett uses the title "The Eternal" as the name of God.
I once asked him why, and he replied that this seemed most characteristic of the qualities of the Infinite. The foreverness of God, who had no beginning and will have no end, explains many providences that seem dark. We must give God time to work out His plans.
In darkest days we can only recall that His thoughts are long, long thoughts beyond our comprehension. To God "a thousand years are as a day."

When mystery crashes into life's call that His thoughts are long, long thoughts beyond our comprehension. To God "a thousand years are as a day."

When mystery crashes into life's routine only a childlike faith can deliver us from despair. I have a noble friend whose devotion to his frail wife was that of a perfect lover. She recently died and his life was shattered; he went all to pieces. Then a clergyman friend brought him back to his life-long faith and he is now at peace. For God's ways may be inscrutable but they are always Father ways. The Interpreter Has Come

To make plain this attitude towards man, God embodied all that He could reveal of Himself in the person of Jesus Christ. During the expected cuts by congress. Aid in the full amount, Marshall declared, is required "to initiate a program of genuine recovery and to take both Europe and this nation out of the blind alley of mere continuing relief."

As for the whole undertaking, the secretary reiterated earlier estimates that the cost might range between $15,100,000,000 and $17,-800,000,000. But he said "the overall cost is not capable of precise determination so far in advance." "Three principles," Marshall said, "should determine the amount and timing of our aid. It must be adequate. It must be prompt. It must be effectively applied."

On the question of providing sufficient funds to do the job, he told the lawmakers that the first appropriation should be enough to get the program under way "on a broad, sound basis and not in a piecemeal manner." "An inadequate program," he added, "would involve a wasteage of our resources with an ineffective result. Either undertake to meet the requirements of the problem or don't undertake it at all." On the question of time, Marshall said, "the sooner this program can get under way the greater its chances of success. x x x Unless the program can be placed in operation on or soon after April first, there will undoubtedly be a serious deterioration in some of the basic conditions upon which the whole project is predicated." In connection with the problem of cost. Marshall gave this reply to whether the American people can bear the costs and make the "sacrifice" he considers necessary to

Courthouse News

The Navarro county courthouse is getting a general cleaning up this week, and perhaps the greatest credit goes to District Clerk J. C. Gaston, who recently complained to the countistoners court that he could hardly "see through the windows" because of the dirt. That started the action. Shoriff David Castles has several the dirt. That started the action. Sheriff David Castles has several jail trusties washing windows, pol-ishing the brass rails on the stairs and removing dirt that has collected over a period of years
County Judge L. L. Powell said the windows hadn't been washed
"in several years" Use of prisoners was considered the most efficlent method by the commissioners because the janitor's time is spent in sweeping and other routine courthouse maintenance.

The Rotary Club's audiometer, purchased for the use of Navarro county schools, has ferreted out a high percent of defective hearing cases in the four institutions so far visited, Dr. Phillip S. Mountjoy reported to the organization at its Wednesday luncheon at the Navarro Hotel.

Dr. Mountjoy said the machine was taken to the Corsicana senior high school Wednesday morning and that tests of students would start Thursday.

Defective Hearing.

Cf the 348 pupils tested at Sam Houston school, 114, of 30 percent, were found to have some form of defective hearing. At the Junior High school, 68, or 25 percent were found defective. Of the 400 examined at the State Home, 75, or 16.5 percent were found defective. At the St. John's parochial school, three defectives were found among 29 pupils.

Despite the apparent high rate, the figures are not alarming, Dr. Mountjoy said. A defect of 20 decibles in one ear, under the exam-REP. GEORGE O. NOKES, JR.

Is a hide a cow?
City sanitation officials mulled at length Wednesday as to this ticklish query, as Oscar Burns, two-time candidate for city cormissioner, and owner of west end property puffed at his pipe. Puffed and prodded, and puffed again.
Burns, whose 40 acres of peanuts, as he puts it, was included in the west end extension of city limits, was at the city hall early Wednesday with the cow hide poser.

Health Menace
He reported to the city engineer's office that in front of his gate on the property recently annexed to the city there was a cow hide. He wanted the city to move it, holding it was a health menace inasmuch as it wasn't getting any prettier by the hour.

Ordinarily it would have been a simple matter for Miss Minnie L.e. Megarity, whose job it is to answer queries and such, to dispose of this health menace. She would have called Roy Greer, who has a pickup truck handy for just such things, and the whole matter would have been settled.

This, however, was the first time anybody had reported a dead hide with no cow inside it. The city hauls away dead animals, but just the outside covering isn't a dead animal. Not only has the spirit fled therefrom, but the flesh, too, has vanished.

A hide, Miss Megarity held, was just a wrapping.

Being of such a nature the matter, of course, had to go to another Megarity—Jess, the head of the city's baby sanitation department.

Debris comes under the heading of the sanitation department, all right, the sanitation Megarity held.

"Why didn't you get your renters to sell the hide?" asked Megarity, probbing for a solution

"Once," replied Burns, inhaling, "there was a cow with it, on the inside. No doubt somebody stole the cow, took the meat, left the hide on my property, right at the gate. Nobody wants to be trying to sell a hide that once enfolded a

It looked as if Burns had a point.

Megarity pondered. He looked
